

JAMES OPARINDE

oparj22@wfu.edu | 770.882.8267

EDUCATION

Wake Forest University

Intended Bachelor of Science in Biochemistry & Molecular Biology
Second major in Economics

Winston-Salem, NC
May 2026

Relevant Coursework: Organic Chemistry I & II, Biology I & II, General Chemistry I, Calculus, Organic Chemistry Lab I & II, Biology Lab I & II

Douglas County High School

- Independently investigated the effects of soil pH on stomatal density in radish leaves
- IB Diploma recipient
- College Board National African-American Recognition Program

Douglasville, GA
May 2022

SKILLS

- Utilizing Microsoft Office Suite and Google Workspace for data visualization and analysis
- Operating various forms of lab equipment such as a spectrophotometer, pipette, and reflux condenser
- Executing purification processes such as recrystallization, distillation, and rotary evaporation
- Applying lab techniques from experimenting with enzymatic activity, neuromuscular function, and spectroscopy interpretation

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Department of Theatre and Dance, Wake Forest University

House Manager

Winston-Salem, NC
Fall 2023– Present

- Ensured smooth progress of performances by coordinating with stage managers and production teams
- Resolved last-minute challenges during pre-show rushes to promote a positive experience for patrons
- Trained and led teams of ushers in providing exceptional customer service

Department of Theatre and Dance, Wake Forest University

Box Office Assistant

Winston-Salem, NC
Fall 2022 – Present

- Facilitated a quality audience experience by attending to customer needs both in person and over the phone
- Composed reports to summarize ticket sales and attendance
- Promoted ticket sales by distributing marketing materials

EXTRACURRICULAR INVOLVEMENT

Intervarsity Christian Fellowship

Small Group Leader

Winston-Salem, NC
Fall 2023 – Present

- Established the first men's small group within my university's Intervarsity chapter
- Provided mentorship and support for group members
- Led thought-provoking discussions to institute an environment of open dialogue and mutual empathy

Young Professionals Organization

Member

Winston-Salem, NC
Fall 2023 – Present

- Collaborated with fellow pre-professional students to enhance our collective professional skill set
- Engaged in discussions on networking strategies to elevate career development practices